You will most likely get an email saying that you should choose which subscription you'd like to sign up for. Please DO NOT pay for a subscription. After you earn a credit, this will go away!!

Each activity that we provide CME credit for is unique. Most activities will have you sign-in via QR code or through a texting service where you'll text a code to a specific number to record attendance.

If you are ever curious about upcoming conferences/activities, please go to Portal - Welcome \(eeds.com\) and look at the activity feed.

If you have any questions, please contact Cheyenne Norem at cheyenne.norem@unitypoint.org.
